On the first day, we, the class of 1990 began our journey down the well-traveled road that would eventually lead us to our ultimate goal . . . GRADUATION

Yet as freshmen we felt this road would be a treacherous one with many twists and turns, but we were determined to conquer all the obstacles before us.

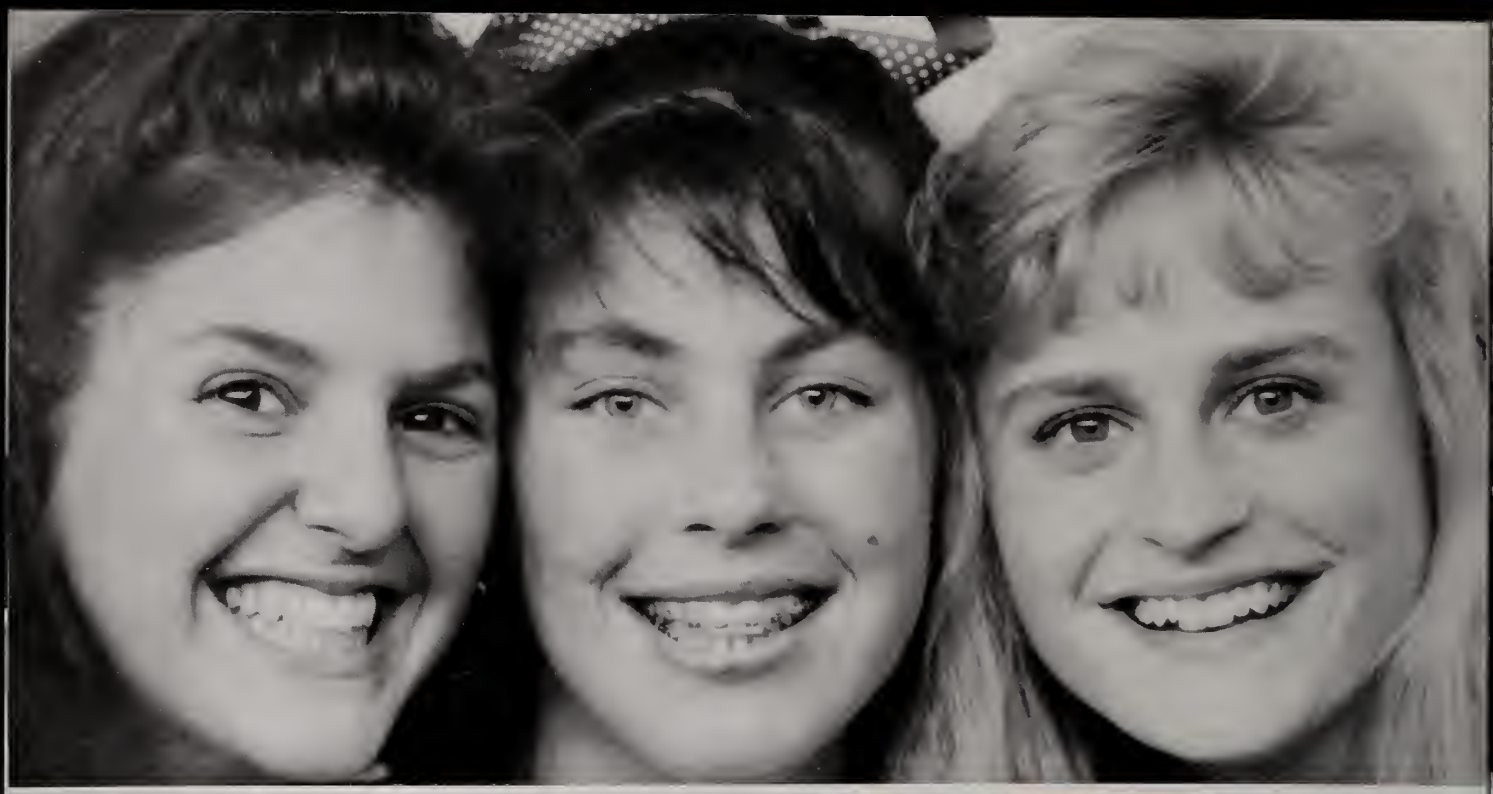
Disoriented and unexperienced, we stood in awe of the upperclassmen's total domination over the school, and we yearned for the opportunity to someday take their place.

With burdensome bookbags hanging over our shoulders, and heaps of books carried in our arms, we madly rushed down the chaotic hallways, in competition with the bell, only to have the doors slammed in our faces.



Before we had realized it, the most critical year of our high school career had arrived. Our junior year. It was time for us to buckle down and seriously think about the future. However, this was a very difficult task since we had enough trouble dealing with the present.

The SAT's, Achievement tests, guidance workshops, and the mere thought of college gave us more stress than we thought we could handle. We were forced to look beyond the security of high school and explore the many options life had to offer. The responsibilities were burdensome, but we accepted them, as they came with the territory of being an upperclassman.

Although we were faced with crucial decisions that would affect the rest of our lives, we tried not to allow it to get to us. There was another side of life that allowed us to forget all of our worries. We took full advantage of the newly found freedom that came with our driver's licenses. Then finally, in celebration of the close of a very long year, we ended on a positive note by dancing the night away at the junior prom, and by going to Horseneck Beach and Rocky Point Amusement Park for our class trip.

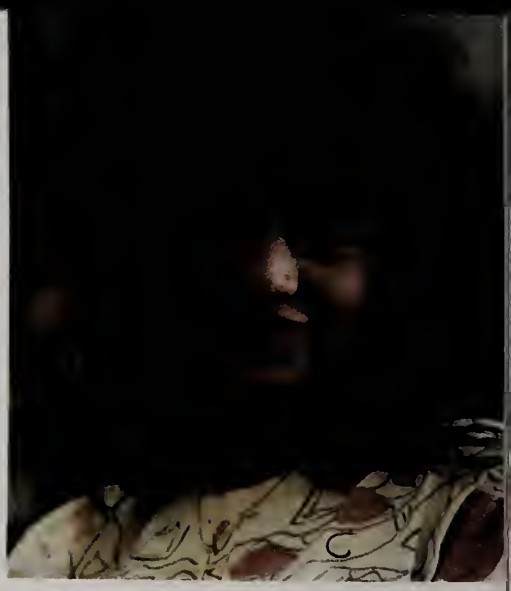
Decked out in fancy dresses and sharp looking tuxedos, the class of 1990 gathered at the newly built LaCasa Bianca function room in Canton. On May 19, 1989, the juniors danced the night away to the music provided by Ed Brown. Halfway into this special evening Andrea Boykin was chosen as the Prom Queen and Gregg Belle as her King. Her court included Kelli Clapprood, Stacey Ogden, and Selly Sabach. The king and queen then led us in dancing to our theme song, "Wonderful Tonight", and it was just that, a wonderful night that will be remembered forever.



At last! The long road had come to an end. We were seniors! As we entered school in September we were plagued by budget cuts due to the failed attempt to override proposition 2½. Although our classes and programs were severed, our senior spirit was not. We had all worked diligently to reach this point and we were not going to let this action spoil it.

No longer were we inflicted with a sense of inferiority, for the school was ours. As team captains, class officers, and editors, we displayed our unmatchable spirit and enthusiasm.

dedication and appreciation

dedication

We feel there is one man at Sharon High School who epitomizes hard work, integrity, and profesionalism. This year he celebrates 30 years of teaching. As the senior member of the High School art staff, he has encouraged students in their pursuit of artistic excellence. He has worked hard to create a first rate art program, and he has taken pride in the many students who have gone on to pursue study of the arts at the college level. He is always available and always willing to help.

In addition to his primary work as a teacher, he has served for many years as our advisor to this yearbook, the Marsengold, one that has won many awards; one that we will be able to look at to refresh treasured memories of our times at Sharon High School.

It is for these many reasons that we hereby dedicate the fiftieth edition of the Marsengold to Mr. Frank Bryant as a symbol of our appreciation and as a heartfelt thanks for over twenty years of service and devotion to Sharon High School.

Although there are many talented people at Sharon High School to whom we would like to express gratitude for their dedication to our education, there is one teacher who stands out in our mind. Her devotion to teaching is especially evident in the long hours she spends after school giving additional help to those students in need. She exhibits patience and understanding. She describes herself as a "workaholic", which is a very acurate assessment. In addition to her work as a math teacher, she is currently serving on a committee to improve the mathematics programs in the Sharon school system, and she is also the adviser of the newly formed Swim Club. We would like to extend our many thanks to Mrs. Sheryl Lampert for her dedication and caring.

The 1989 boys' tennis team won their third straight division II state championship in a row, increasing their winning streak to 66 consecutive victories without a loss. In the second singles slot, Tim Lipsky proved to be a major asset to the team and increased his own personal record to 55 wins without ever being defeated. Jon Cooley, dubbed "the human backboard" by coach Ron Holt, spent most of the season at second doubles and proved to be a great asset to the team. Also contributing to a great season were Andy Lipsky, who played third singles, and Doug Wolkon, who, along with Adam Ferrin, were the utility men on the team.

The Girls' tennis team had a successful season, with contributions from senior Joanne Sweeney, and juniors Bethann Barry and Sharon Schlessinger. The doubles team of Debbie Katz, and Marci Levine left a lasting impression on the team with their many victories. Vicki Gardos, a new member on the tennis team, played third singles and Greta August and Joanne Sweeney, second doubles, all had a great year and helped to infuse a sense of team spirit.

The 1989 boys' track team showed more and more promise as the season progressed. The relay team, consisting of Carlos Garcia, Robert Russo, Jon Saphire and Rob Tubbs, made it all the way to the state championships. Also Rob Tubbs was the team's top sprinter, representing Massachusetts in national competition. Ilya Bezverkhny displayed an excellent arm for shotput, while Ben Kafka skied over the competition in the high jump events. Patrick Heck, Brian Kinney, Tony Comeau, and Kenny Klau were the teams top long distance runners.

The transition of coaches has been a difficult adjustment for the girl's team. However, their effort and determination paid off in a very satisfying victory over our rivals, the Canton Bulldogs. With the return of senior tri-captains Heidi Framer, Heather MacDonald, and Lori Olinger, as well as other contributing seniors, the team looks good for the upcoming season.

The record of the 1989 softball season did not reflect the hard work, determination, and spirit of the team. With the help of coaches Jim Regan and Charles Egan, the season was a unique learning experience. Although we will be losing the leadership provided by senior co-captains Kathy Crehan and Kristen Mobilia, the return of juniors Shannon Mackey, Julie Starr, Tracey Nichol, Beth Goldstein, and Robin Zimmerman should provide the leadership necessary for a successful season.

The 1989 boys varsity baseball team had a cast of young players who looked to solidify the teams play. Second baseman Gavin Mish showed great proficiency in the field while improving at the plate as the season progressed. Left fielder Matt Yas demonstrated his batting prowess, hitting for an excellent average, while playing his position in the field well. Steve Faberman took advantage of all opportunities and ended the season with a batting average hovering around .350. Kevin Johnson turned in some splendid pitching performances, including a one hitter, and was the shining star of the pitching staff. Also contributing a great deal to the team was center fielder Marc Levy, who in his first year on varsity made the Hockomock league all star game.

The 89-90 Sharon High Golf Team had one of their best seasons this year. John Pruett's coaching the team resulted in the qualifying for the State Team Tournament, which will be held in the spring of 90.

Senior Captain Jon Winn, who won the Hockamock League Individual Championship, helped lead the team to their successful record of 9-5-2. Seniors Charlie Haner, Steve Faberman, and Dan Levine also had winning records. Juniors Josh Fink and Rick Clemons had their share of wins. Newcomers to the team, Mike Rodman, Geoff Waller, Brad Walter and Thor VanVaerenwyck practiced and played as alternates to soon help the future team.

The whole team would like to thank "Coach" John Pruett for his support throughout the season.

Under the wing of Coach Alan Howie, the Boys Varsity Soccer Team finished the season with a record of 4-10-2, one that hardly reflects the unrelenting determination, spirit, and class of the team. The offense was led by tri-captain Jon Factor at center halfback, Tim Lipsky at left halfback, and Hockomock League All-Star, and tri-captain Will Andrade, who was also the leading scorer. On the other end of the field, tri-captain Dave Raider, also known as the "stopper," and senior Mike Pariseau provided a formidable defense. Other fine contributions to the team were given by seniors, Dan Weiner, Ran Herman, and Ken Klau. Although the team will be losing the departing seniors, the talent of the underclassmen should lead the team to success in the future.

In only their third competitive season, the girls soccer team has become one of the rising stars of the Hockomock League. Contributing to the success of the team were Molly Johnson, Amy Cohen, and junior Keryn Goldstein on offense. On the defensive side were Dawn Mali and Shannon Mackey whose relentless playing helped to make goalie Rebecca Weiner's job a lot easier one. Although the team will be losing senior captains Amy Cohen, Molly Johnson, Shannon Mackey, and Dawn Mali, the talent of the underclassmen will lead the team to future success.

The 1989 boys cross country team had a fine season. Despite losing three races in the middle of the season, the team finished the year with a 5-3 record. The team was led by senior captain, Tony Comeau, and seniors Eamon Geoghgan, Brian Kinney, Rich Walter, and Scott Clifton. Juniors Dan Goldstein and Deepak Reddy made strong contributions as did a slew of sophomores and an outstanding performance by freshman John Lehman.

Although the girls cross country team had a 3-5 record, the team managed to bring the fun and excitement back into the running season. The two senior captains, Jen Takagi and Heidi Framer, led a large group of juniors, sophomore Becca Kadish and freshman Tracey Foley to a most rewarding season despite numerous injuries.

Although the 1989 Sharon High Varsity field hockey team did not have a winning season, it proved to be a great experience for everyone who participated. With six returning seniors, the team had scoring power from captain Heather Macdonald, captain Hang Tran, and seniors Daphne Karydas and Mari Johnson. Outstanding defense was played throughout the season by captain Amy Silverman and senior Sue Slater. The team proved through fun, spirit, and dedication that winning isn't everything. Special thanks to Coach Decas and first year J.V. coach Jan Newman for their enthusiasm and dedication to the team. We look forward to a great season next year.

This year's football team played much better than their 4-6 record shows. The offense was spearheaded by two All-Hockomock running backs, Rob Tubbs and Carlos Garcia. The offensive line, led by center, captain Josh Rattet and tackle Matt Keeling provided great protection for sophomore quarterback Marc Levy. Running back Keich Scott handled opposing defensive lineman with ease and gained many yards for the Eagles. Captain Jon Saphire was relied on to get the yards needed for a first down. On defense, captain Damian Halfkenny constantly threatened opposing quarterbacks from his position at nose tackle. Captain Rob Russo was also a constant threat from defensive end, along with defensive Chris Dindio. Other contributers to the Eagles were tight and Josh Mermelstein, offensive lineman Jack Berkowitz, and offensive tackle Kevin Johnson.

The 1989-90 Boy's Varsity Basketball Team looks to have an outstanding season this year. A good combination of undercalss-men and seniors provides the chemistry for victory. Co-captain Brian Coffey and co-captain Jon Winn are stable fixtures in the guard position, while co-captain Ben Kafka is a dominating re-bounder. David Raider has excellent range with his outside shot, oroviding critical three pointers down the stretch in many games. Other contributing seniors include guards Will Andrade and Scott "the shot" Clifton and forward Gregg Belle and David Zophin. Juniors Peter Capernaros, A. Hockomock League All-Star last year and Jeff Scott are the two underclass starters who also make strong contributions to the team's success. After the first 7 games of the season the eagles are 7-1, losing only to powerhouse North-Attleboro by one point.

This season, the girl's Varsity Basketball has greatly improved. Led by Captain Susan Slater at center, the team looked strong. Senior guard Julie Starr and senior forward Tracey Nichol are both outoutstanding players. While Starr spearheads an excellent offense, Nichol displays tough defense. Juniors Rebecca Weiner, Keryn Goldstein, and Danielle Mogolesko were strong and important contributors.

This year's Girls Gymnastics team looks to be as promising as last year's. The gymnasts, led by Senior Captains Heather Macdonald and Nova Wolfson, and Senior Lori Olinger, hope to top last year's South Sectional win with a State title. Starting off strong, Sharon defeated the rival Canton Bulldogs, and are on their way to acheiving an all-time record high score led by Coach Horan. Good Luck to Juniors Charlene Russo and Marcia Fleischman.

Under the coaching expertise of Brian Gallagher, Rob O'Donnell, and Fernando Mazoratti, the wrestling team has risen to become one of the stars in the Hockomock League. In only its third competitive season, the team has displayed its perseverance and strong desire to win as they have posted a very impressive record thus far. Expecially commendable performances include those by seniors Tony Comeau, Anthony Lucie, Rob Russo, Kevin Johnson, Kevin and Keith Barzey, and junior Co-captain Mark Messina. Although the team will be losing the outstanding leadership and talent of senior co-captain, Adam Stuczynski next year, the team looks very promising for the future.

J.V. halloween

Little Richard, Alice in Wonderland, the signs of the Zodiac, and a lemonade stand were just some of the unique costumes that were worn for this year's Halloween Dress-up Day. The day was a success, as a great percentage of the student body displayed their Halloween spirit by coming in costume. At the annual assembly, sponsored and run by the Student Council, a number of individual awards were given out for the best costumes, as well as the spirit award, which was won by none other than the senior class of 1990.

GARAGE

On a very untypical autumn afternoon, it felt like summer as the eagles took on the Franklin Panthers. The unseasonaly warm weather seemed to work for the eagles, for they beat the Panthers by a score of 19-13. The annual half-time festivities included performances by the band, the cheerleaders, and the float competition, which was won by the sophomores, with the juniors in second place. Also at half-time, the senior homecoming queen, Dawn Mali, was chosen. Her court included Lisa Bennett, Kelli Claprood, Amy Cohen, Molly Johnson, and Tracey Nichol. The good times continued into the evening as we danced the night away to the first toga dance at Sharon High sponsered by the senior class.

On the day before the big Thanksgiving Day game against our rivals Oliver Ames, the entire school gathered to cheer on the Sharon Eagles. At the request of our Senior Class President Susan Slater, the four classes cheered together as a cohesive unit rather than as four separate classes. After the introduction of the football players, the cheerleaders performed a thrilling show of enthusiasm for our team. Then the alternate cheerleaders, with a special appearance by Jon Katz, showed off their abilities ending with a daring split by David Zophin. (Don't try that one at home.) The Senior girls proceeded with a skit which was a hopeful depiction of what the next day would bring. Finally, we saw the dynamic talent of Dameka Halfkenny and crew as they danced to one of the rhythmic songs of Janet Jackson.

For this year's fall presentation, the Drama club put on a sparkling rendition of Anita Loo's Broadway comedy, Gentlemen Prefer Blondes. Set in the "Roaring Twenties", the play is about two unsophisticated and innocent friends, Miss Lorelei Lee, played by Amy Tobin, and Dorothy Gilbert, played by Alicia Leonard, who come from the sleepy Southern town of Little Rock, Arkansas. Their naivete causes them to get in and out of trouble, as they experience life and love.

Some more noteworthy performances were given by junior Josh Koffman, who played the role of "Daddy", and Senior Alex Kiselgoff who played the role of Sam. The cast and crew should be congratulated for a job well-done.

CLASS DAY '89

One of the highlights of our junior year took place at the conclusion of our exams. It signified the end of a very long and hectic year. As the last bell rang we dashed foru our cars and headed to Horseneck Beach for a day of surf, sun, and sand.

It was a perfect beach day and we swam, tossed frisbees, and basked in the warm glow of the late spring sun. Our fun didn't end with the setting sun for by early evening we continued our good times at Rocky Point Amusement Park. The class day outing was a great way to cap off our junior year and to help psych ourselves up to return to S.H.S. in September as _____ SENIORS!!!
